12. [redacted] LIAISON Tom Moore, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, asked me to arrange an Intelligence Community budget briefing for Senator Gary Hart (D., Colo.) since the Senator could not attend today's briefing. Moore suggested a briefing of approximately 45 minutes sometime this week.

13. [redacted] LIAISON Spoke with Ben Marshall, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding Committee plans to clear a staff member of Senator Robert C. Byrd (D., W. Va.) for access to Committee information. I told Marshall the Agency was quite satisfied with the Committee arrangement, whereby each senator had a designee on the Committee staff and no personal staff were briefed on Committee matters, and would be reluctant to see a change in policy. Marshall said that this person in effect would be Senator Byrd's designee but that the idea was not yet final and he had to speak further to Bill Miller, Staff Director, about it. Marshall will keep me posted.

14. [redacted] I asked if it was essential that Madigan personally interview him and Taylor replied that it was not and that he, Mike Epstein and Paula Schwartz, of the Committee staff, would conduct the interview. We agreed on the afternoon of 24 February. Taylor also informed me that Admiral Stansfield Turner nomination had been approved by the Committee by unanimous vote and that the Committee would seek a waiver of a Senate rule and seek to have a Senate vote tomorrow.

15. [redacted] LIAISON Called Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, to seek clarification of a remark Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) had made to Mr. Knoche, A/DCI, regarding surveillance of Senate Select Committee on Intelligence members. Miller said the Chairman, during their recent meeting, had only mentioned to new members that intelligence agencies had agreed to inform the Committee if we detected any surveillance of Committee members and that the Chairman was probably only reminding Mr. Knoche of this agreement.
