1 AUG 1966

Lt. General J. M. Masters, Sr., USMC
Commandant, Marine Corps Schools
Quantico, Virginia 22134

Dear General Masters:

Thank you for your invitation to address the staff and students of the Marine Corps Command and Staff College and the Communication Officers School on "The Threat to the Free World" on the morning of 21 September 1966. I regret that I will be unable to make the address.

I have asked [redacted] a member of the CIA Board of National Estimates, to make the address. Mr. [redacted] is a most able analyst of the international scene and is one of the Agency's senior officers. I hope this will be acceptable to you.

[redacted] can be contacted on [redacted].
[redacted] You and your staff may feel free to be in touch with him to complete the necessary arrangements.

Sincerely,

/s/ Richard Helms
