MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Director,
Current Intelligence

Filed by SP/1
MAY 5 1958

SUBJECT : White House Situation Room

1. On 6 and 7 May the [redacted] will conduct an exercise prior to the regular Operation [redacted]. At least two members of the White House Staff will relocate to Camp David. Their base of operations will be the Situation Room in the Shelter area.

2. In view of CIA's obligation to staff the White House Situation rooms whenever they are activated, arrangements have been made for [redacted] to accompany Mr. Minnick of the White House staff when he departs for Camp David. Since [redacted] is [redacted] alternate and he has not yet visited Camp David, arrangements have also been made for him to accompany me to Camp David on 7 May and return that same day.

3. In order to provide [redacted] with Current Intelligence support during the two-day exercise, arrangements have also been made to transmit to him by secure wire selected current intelligence items which are produced in OCI during the period. The communications circuit will be through the CIA [redacted] and thereby provide a live test of agency facilities to transmit information between the two [redacted].
