SUBJECT: DCI Request for Briefing Material

1. Mr. Helms is to brief ex-President Eisenhower on Wednesday or Thursday, 13 or 14 July. He has requested the following material to be delivered to [redacted] by noon Tuesday, 12 July:

25X1A

- One book containing text of briefings and page-size graphics. (This differs from past practice when two complete books were prepared).
- An extra set of page-size graphics which can be handed to the President as the briefing proceeds.
- Coverage of briefing to include updating last briefing where appropriate, current "hot spots," and selected new developments such, for instance, as Soviet missile advances, French nuclear tests, etc.
- Length to be about as in previous briefings of President Eisenhower.
- Classification all the way.

25X1A 2. [redacted] could not be contacted on Saturday noon when the request came in. The SDO has been instructed to reach [redacted] during the weekend to advise him of the requirement and give him an early starting time should it be necessary.
