SZECHWAN KMT REMNANTS SURRENDER -- New York Hua-ch'iao Jih-pao, 11 Jul 50

Chungking, 6 July (Hsin-hua) -- The Southwest Military District Headquarters has announced that some 12,200 KMT remnants and bandits were annihilated during May in the Southwest area by the People's Liberation Army. In Szechwan alone, it is said, some 60 to 80 percent of the above figures voluntarily surrendered to the Communist forces.

The farmers of Szechwan are now organizing themselves into a self-defense unit to preserve peace and order in their areas and to fight KMT bandits.

MOPPING-UP OPERATIONS CONTINUE IN COASTAL AREA -- New York Hua-ch'iao Jih-pao, 11 Jul 50

Nanking, 2 July (Hsin-hua) -- Since the liberation of Chou-shan Islands, the forces of the Third Field Army and the East China Military District have been conducting mopping-up operations to secure the area. It is reported that these operations are nearing completion and that the majority of the KMT remnants have been captured or destroyed.

CHEKIANG SUPPRESSES BANDITS -- Canton Nan-fang Jih-pao, 17 Jul 50

Since the fall of Chou-shan, the Chekiang Military District, units, with the cooperation of the armed farmers self-defense units, have pushed bandit suppression and the political offensive campaign. Each bandit-suppression unit has coordinated operations with the local government so that the summer harvest-ing has not been interrupted.

Bandit-suppression activities have been carried out in the Wen-ling, Yu-chao, Hsin-chang, Ch'eng-hsien, Lin-hai, P'u-chiang, and Tung-yang areas. All units are refusing to accept the surrender of these bandits and are annihilating them.

All coastal defense units are tightening their patrols along the coast and on the sea. Ling-hsing Hsiao-tao has been occupied, and CCF troops have moved into She-pan-shang and Pai-sha Tao located at the mouth of Chiao Chiang.

Since May 1949, when all-out bandit-suppression activities were started, until February 1950, over 52,000 bandits have been killed. Those remaining have scattered and do not operate in the open. However, the remnant bandits on Chou-shan have sent armed special agents to the mainland to organize and to continue destructive activities. In a few areas, the bandits have become active again.

BORDER AREA REPORTS -- Canton Nan-fang Jih-pao, 17 Jun 50

A bandit-suppression program instituted to clear the Kwangtung-Kiangsi-Hunan border area of destructive elements was conscientiously carried out. During the period when the CCF in the area had not built up sufficient strength to maintain law and order, bandits joined with local landlords, special agents and lawless people to cause unrest and havoc throughout the Nan-hsiung, Ta-yu, Ch'ung-i, and Ju-ch'eng areas.

To annihilate these bandits, the CCF troops divided into squads and platoons to penetrate the mountains and villages and drive out the much hated bandit elements. These activities were aided by the people. In addition, a conference was held for relatives of bandits with the plan that the relatives would take the message to the bandits to return to productive activities. As a result, many bandits returned and at the same time over 300 were annihilated.

SAN-FOU DEMANDS REGISTRATION OF ALL VISITORS -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih,pao,
20 Jun 50

Macao, 19 June -- Visitors from San-fou report that since guerrilla activities in San-fou and its environs have caused disturbances, the San-fou CCF Military Control Council and the Public Security Bureau have found it necessary to adopt stricter security measures. Henceforth, all visitors coming into or leaving San-fou via Hong Kong or Macao on boats must be registered.

Exit registration is to be completed 20 minutes before each boat leaves the dock. A special form must be correctly filled in with the requested information by all passengers. Entry registration must be made in similar fashion after the boat is docked and prior to the landing of the passengers. When a boat is ready to dock or leave, the person in charge of the boat must submit the completed forms to the Public Security Agency which will delegate an individual to examine the forms. After the information submitted has been approved, a seal of approval is added to the document. The boat may then proceed to leave or to unload passengers.
