NATIONALISTS REPORT 350,000 MAINLAND GUERRILLAS;
GUERRILLAS CONTINUE TO DISRUPT COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES

TAIWAN REPORTS KMT GUERRILLA ACTIVITIES -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 15 Jun 50

Taihoku, 14 June -- Taiwan KMT authorities reported today that the present strength of the organized KMT armed guerrillas now operating on the China mainland numbers about 350,000 and that their activities are being coordinated from Taiwan under the able guidance of General Mao Sen.

During the past year, it is said that these guerrillas launched more than 2,000 attacks against the CCF, killing more than 60,000 and capturing about 15,000 Chinese Communist troops. Damages done to Chinese Communist installations, communications, etc., are said to be very extensive.

The Nationalist authorities claim that these reports include only the activities being conducted by guerrillas directed from Taiwan by General Mao Sen. The anti-Communist activities now being carried on by the CNA remnants in Tsing-hai, Sinkiang, Sikang, and Szechwan are on a sufficiently large scale to cause difficulties for the Communist authorities.

KMT GUERRILLAS KILL CCP PROPAGANDA CORPSMEN -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao,
4 Jul 50

On 27 June 1950, a KMT guerrilla unit attacked and killed a number of men and women who were sent out by the Ying-te, Kwangtung, CCP to carry out propaganda work in Ta-wan village. This attack was the second of its kind during the past few weeks. The first attack was made by the guerrillas at Ho-t'ou-hsu in early June when eight members of the propaganda corps were killed.

Investigations are now being conducted by the CCF stationed in the area to prevent the recurrence of such incidents.

KMT GUERRILLAS HIJACK CCF SUPPLIES -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 11 Jul 50

Shih-ch'iao, 10 July -- On 6 July 1950, a CCF military vehicle transporting uniforms, leather goods, shoes, etc., under the protection of seven Chinese Communist soldiers was attacked by a group of KMT guerrillas near Hengtung, Kwangtung. The guerrillas blew out the tires of the vehicle, making it impossible for the soldiers to escape, and hijacked all the supplies as well as the arms carried by the soldiers.

KMT GUERRILLAS DISRUPT CCF TROOP MOVEMENTS -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 5 Jul 50

Pao-an, 4 July -- KMT guerrillas operating in Pao-an Hsien, Kwangtung, are now attacking Chinese Communist troop convoys. Recently, they attacked a small CCF convoy traveling on the highway near Wu-shih village, killing or injuring a number of Chinese Communist troops.

Because of these attacks, it is said that the CCF authorities are now dispatching a guard unit with every convoy or forming a larger convoy to afford greater protection in traveling through this area.

CANTON--WU-CHOU TRAFFIC ALMOST AT STANDSTILL -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 11 Jul 50

Macao, 10 July -- Navigators on the Canton--Wu-chou Water route have reported that the KMT bandit and pirate activities on this route are making navigation almost too hazardous to undertake.

In June 1950, according to these reports, some 2,000 Chinese Communist troops advancing to Kuei-lin, Kwangsi, on this route were attacked by these pirates and bandits, and were almost all wiped out. Since this incident, it is said that even the Chinese Communist troops hesitate to travel this route.

DESTROYS 2,700 BANDITS IN MAY -- Canton Nan-fang Jih-pao, 19 Jun 50

Results of the bandit-suppression campaigns, launched during May 1950 in the Kuei-lin, I-shan, Liu-chou, and P'ing-lo areas in northern Kwangsi, which were recently released are as follows: 620 killed, 1,277 captured, and 833 surrendered. The equipment captured included 5 mountain guns, 1,564 rifles, 526 pistols, 9 light machine guns, 3 heavy machine guns, 28,032 rounds of small-arms ammunition, 156 hand grenades, one telephone set, 3 bayonets, and one artillery piece.

TO EDUCATE PEOPLE IN BANDIT SUPPRESSION -- Yang-chou Su-pei Jih-pao, 31 May 50

To overcome the passive attitude of the masses toward the bandit-suppression campaign, in the lake region of T'ai-chou, Kiangsu, the Public Security Bureau of T'ai-chou Special District recently decided to institute a program for educating the people on the importance of the bandit-suppression campaign. In addition, it was decided to organize local self-defense units to arouse the interest of the public.

These measures have proven very successful as shown by the fact that the people are now actively aiding the forces in destroying the bandits. Recently, they cooperated in capturing Lu Chi-ch'ing and 20 other members of the KMT Kiangsu Guerrilla Column of the China People's Anti-Communist National Salvation Army, now operating in the T'ai-hsing area.
