SOVIET TECHNICIANS CONTINUE ACTIVITY IN CHINA

SOVIET TECHNICIANS TO TRAIN CCF -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 4 Aug 50

Hong Kong, 3 August -- Reliable information from Shanghai reveals that an undisclosed number of Soviet technicians from the Hung-ch'iao area in Shanghai were transferred to South China last week. It is rumored that these technicians were sent to the Foochow-Amoy area to train Chinese Communists troops in the use of Soviet artillery and planes.

INSPECT KWANGTUNG MILITARY INSTALLATIONS -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 10 Aug 50

Canton, 9 August -- It is reported that Teng Hua, commander of the CCF 15th Army Group, and the Canton Garrison Headquarters, is scheduled to make an inspection tour of military installations in the Chu Chiang estuary on 9 August 1950 with some ten Soviet advisors headed by Khalitov.

After the tour, Teng Hua is to leave for Hankow to confer with Lin Piao.

MORE SOVIET PERSONNEL ARRIVE IN CANTON -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 27 Jul 50

Canton, 26 July -- During the past few weeks, a number of Soviet air force, artillery, and naval technicians have been arriving at Canton via the Canton-Hankow Railway. They are being quartered in Sha-mien, the Ai-ch'un Hotel, barracks at T'ien-ho village, etc.

Russians have been seen frequently in the streets of Canton, but recently they were ordered not to make public appearances except in company of Chinese government personnel. This action, it is said, was taken by the Soviet authorities to curb growing public antagonism toward them.

TECHNICIANS LOOK FOR TUNGSTEN -- Hong Kong-shang Jih-pao, 28 Aug 50

It has been reported that four Soviet technicians went to Nan-p'eng Tao, an island located near the mouth of the Yang Chiang near Fort Bayard, Kwangtung, to survey the possibility of mining tungsten on the island.

TO SUPERVISE REPAIR WORK ON WAN-SHAN ISLANDS -- Hong Kong-shang Jih-pao, 28 Jul 50

Macao, 27 July -- After the liberation of the Wan-shan Islands, some ten Soviet advisors were sent out to the various islands which make up this group to inspect sites for an airfield. Plans are now being made to renovate the San-tsaio airfield.

GERMAN POWS TRAIN CCF AIRMEN -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 9 Aug 50

Taihoku -- A KMT intelligence officer reports that the Russians are employing German prisoners of war, brought to China ostensibly to work in the salt fields, to train Chinese Communist air force personnel. These Germans have their identification numbers tattooed on their arms and the letters "USSR" on their backs.

REPORTS JAPANESE IN COMMUNIST ARMY -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 9 Aug 50

Canton, 8 August -- On 6 August 1950, eight men, dressed in black, were escorted by the soldiers of the Canton Garrison Headquarters to the Guang-pu Railroad station and put aboard a military train, loaded with troops of the Fourth Field Army destined for the north. According to a reliable source, it is said that these men were eight of the 12 Japanese artillerymen assigned to the Fourth Field Army who tried to desert while waiting for troop transport trains at Canton. Three of the four who are still at large have been identified as Shoda Yori, Harada Hisa, and Tanaka Toshio.

It is further said that these men were dressed in black by the Communist authorities while being escorted from the Canton Garrison Headquarters to the railroad station to prevent disclosure of their nationality.
