USSR NETWORK OF MEDICAL SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH INSTITUTES

The following decree of the Council of People's Commissars USSR concerns approval of the network of medical scientific research institutes of the USSR and the reorganization of certain institutes.

DECREE No 2201 OF THE COUNCIL OF PEOPLE'S COMMISSARS USSR,
31 OCTOBER 1940

To realize a better control of the network of medical scientific research institutes, the Council of People's Commissars USSR resolves:

1. That the network of medical scientific research institutes be approved in accordance with Appendix No 1.
2. That the People's Commissariat of Public Health USSR will reorganize certain scientific research institutes in accordance with Appendix No 2, and further provide for the same number of beds.

That medical workers who become unemployed as a result of this reorganization will be placed according to their specialties.

3. That the future organization of new medical scientific research institutes be instituted only with the permission of the Council of People's Commissars USSR.

Chairman, Council of People's Commissars USSR, M. Pervukin
Secretary, M. Khlomov
