KMT GUERRILLAS LAND IN CHEKIANG -- Hong Kong, Kung-shang Jih-pao, 15 Jun 52

Information from a reliable source discloses that on 10 June 1952 over 1,000 KMT guerrillas made a landing in Southern Chekiang and attacked the Huang-chiao area. They penetrated several miles inland, and wiped out 500 Chinese Communist troops. These guerrillas are remaining in this area.

3,000 DESERT CCF IN KWANGSI -- Hong Kong, Kung-shang Jih-pao, 7 Jun 52

A recent report states that a deputy commander of a CCF regiment led 3,000 officers and men under his command to desert the Chinese Communist "Vietnam Volunteer Forces" and joined forces with the anti-Communist guerrillas.

ANTI-COMMUNIST GUERRILLAS ATTACK COASTAL VILLAGE -- Hong Kong, Kung-shang Jih-pao, 4 Jul 52

(Chung-lien She) -- With the clandestine aid of ten Chinese Communist militiamen, anti-Communist guerrillas successfully attacked Sha-chiang Hsiang, Hai-feng Hsien, Kwangtung, on 25 June 1952. These guerrillas entered the village at about 0100 hours, surrounded the militia unit, and captured the militia commander, Ch'en P'u (7), hsiang chief, Ch'en Hua-chao (8), and six Communist cadres.

The guerrillas then spread anti-Communist propaganda. Upon completing their mission, the guerrillas executed the Communist leaders and cadres, and then left the area with the ten militiamen who aided them.

HO-P'ING HSIEN ATTACKED BY GUERRILLAS -- Hong Kong, Kung-shang Jih-pao, 27 Jun 52

According to a Chung-yang She report, at 0200 hours, on 18 June 1952, some 400 Kwangtung-Kwangsi border area guerrillas attacked Ho-p'ing Hsien. Li Shao-wu (9), deputy hsien magistrate and concurrently public security bureau chief, was killed. Chou Lin (10) commander of the public security battalion (ta-tui), set fire to the public security building and led 70 members under his command to revolt against the Communists, and then joined forces with the guerrillas. While withdrawing, the guerrillas, joined by the deserters, blew up seven bridges along the Ho-p'ing -- Lien-p'ing highway.

GUERRILLAS LAND IN FOCHOW AREA -- Hong Kong, Kung-shang Jih-pao, 2 Jul 52

Chung-yang She reports that a group of KMT guerrillas on the Pai-kou-shan islands, outside the Fochow estuary, made a landing in the western Fochow area and attacked the Communist forces in early June. Sung Shih-lun's (11) men of the Third Field Army opposed the landing but were forced to retreat. Before withdrawing, the guerrillas blasted the locks and boats in Ta-lung Kan, damaging 39 Communist gunboats which were being prepared for active duty.
