2. Sinkiang People's Government
(Urumchi, Sinkiang Jih-pao, 14 Jun 53)

Pursuant to a Northwest Area directive concerning summer harvesting and seed selecting, the Sinkiang People's Government has issued the following addition to cadres:

Study the directive and adapt it to local conditions since over 40 percent of the cultivated land in Sinkiang is wheat acreage and seed selection has been neglected. Prepare to reap, avoid unexpected losses, and reap promptly. Mobilize peasants for seed selecting. Tie in evaluation process with the activities.

3. Sinkiang People's Government
(Urumchi, Sinkiang Jih-pao, 16 Jun 53)

Rules governing rewards on the production of abundant crops in 1953 issued by the Sinkiang People's Government include the following:

A fifth crop, grapes, is being added to the four -- paddy rice, wheat, cotton, and corn -- previously stipulated.

Standards for bonus on good grape crops are:

Unit	Bonus Area	Production Per Area Unit
Mutual Team	3 mou	375 kg (raisins)
Individual	1 mou	375 kg (raisins)

A high production unit, besides reaching the bonus grade must show a better average amount of the specific crop for other areas. Other high production bonus standards may be drawn up on the basis of those stipulated by the district but such standards must be approved by an appropriate government office. The standards of production apply only to irrigated land; awards will not be given to crops from dry fields.
