25X1

1. Eastern Orthodox Church, on the Church Square.
2. Communist Party Headquarters, on the Church Square facing the church. It is a 2-story, grey, brick building, measuring 7-8 by 20 meters. The ground floor is occupied by a stationery and a dress shop. The second floor contains the Communist Party Headquarters, which occupy the whole floor.
3. Post Office Building, on the Church Square. It is a 2-story, grey, rectangular building, of brick, measuring about 7-8 meters on each side.
4. The State Savings Bank, next to the Post Office on a side street which leads to the Church Square.
5. The People's City Council Building, opposite the State Savings Bank on the side street leading to the square and in the second block from the square. It is a 1-story, brick building built before 1944 and not yet plastered. It measures about 7 meters square and about 10 meters in height. At the entrance of the building there is a stairway of about 10 steps.
6. The Militia and State Security Headquarters is next to the People's City Council Building in the second block of the side street leading to the square. It is a 2-story brick building about 15 meters square. The ground floor is occupied by the Militia while the second floor contains the State Security Headquarters. There are generally 25 to 30 persons on duty in the building during the day, and about 10 to 15 persons at night.
