1. Large military depots, about 30 meters in depth, have been constructed between Chotylow (S 53/M 66) and Malaszewicze railroad station on the Warsaw-Brest railroad line. They consist of six fuel tanks, each of which has a capacity of six million liters, and underground warehouses. These depots are camouflaged in the woods in the neighborhood of the village of Popiel. Near the depots are unloading ramps several kilometers long. A broad-gauge railroad line runs from one of these ramps to Brest. No one is permitted to approach the area from Malaszewicze.
2. Similar stores have been built in the woods at Solec Kujawski (P 54/J 18), Koszalin (Koeslin), Aleksandrow Kujawski (Q 53/J 46), and Polczyn Zdroj (Bad Polzin - O 54/M 50).
3. Barracks large enough to accommodate at least an army division are being built at Polczyn Zdroj.
