1. Since the dismissal of Winot Sukotjo as its general secretary, the administration of the Wonokromo Onder Sectie Comite (OSC) of the Surabaya Section, Partai Komunis Indonesia (PKI), has steadily declined and organizational work has come almost to a standstill. Although Minu, a member of the Sectie Comite, has taken over direction of the OSC, little progress has been made in reorganizing the unit.
2. To remedy the situation, the Sectie Comite has appointed Akran to teach officers of the OSC the proper techniques of administrative and organizational work. A formal reorganization of the Wonokromo OSC will be delayed until these courses have been completed.

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment. The situation in the Wonokromo OSC is typical of that in many other party units. Inadequately trained officers are unable to handle the work resulting from the recent growth in membership.

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment. Sukotjo was made general secretary of the Wonokromo OSC at its organization in September 1952 [REDACTED] in March Minu had assumed direction of the OSC during a three-month suspension of Sukotjo.
