	19.	On 28 November, the Kavallerie Schule was occupied as was observed previously. Several buildings in the west section of the installation were vacant. Residents said that soldiers from this section of the installation were transferred to the Doeberitz troop training grounds during the first days of November. Between 17 and 28 November, about 200 to 250 soldiers engaged in close-order drill in the barracks yard almost daily, while about 50 to 60 soldiers practiced carbine firing at the target range. On 17 November, an armored personnel carrier 25X1		moved out of the installation toward Doeberitz. Trucks each occupied by 25 soldiers without arms and luggage entered the barracks installation, coming from the direction of Satzkorn railroad station on 20 No-

		toward Satzkorn railroad station. On 27 November, 3 armored personnel carriers entered the barracks installation from the Doeberitz training grounds. 3
25X1	20.	On 6 November, 86 trucks including 80 occupied each by 25 soldiers wearing red- -bordered black epaulets and 6 carrying luggage and towing an artillery piece moved along Nedlitzer Strasse in Fotsdam toward north.
		On 24 November, the Kavallerie Schule was occupied by 4,000 to 5,000 troops. Thirty uniformed women were transferred from the officers' settlement to house No 15 between 13and 24 November. On 19 November, about 80 to 100 sol-
25X1		diers engaged in basic infantry training on the athletic field on Reiterdama. T-34 tank and two other T-34 and a JS-1 tank were parked in the tank repair shop. On 20 November, 60 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and black-bordered crimson epaulets equipped with spades and shovels left the billeting area. On 21 November, about 120 troops left building No 3, heading for the tank garages on Reiterdamm. The unit, presumably a notorcycle unit, apparently returned during the last 25X1		days, as building No 3 had quertered only a few soldiers prior to that time. Building No 2 quartered 80 to 100 soldiers who were motor transport insignia.
