1. [redacted] Comment. Military supply traffic in the area of RBD Halle increased slightly in June 1954. It amounted to 921 carloads at 16 railroad stations in June, to 566 carloads at 18 railroad stations in March, to 463 carloads at 15 railroad stations in April, and to 766 carloads at 15 railroad stations in May.

2. [redacted] Comment. The shipments from Leipzig-Wahren to the USSR possibly consisted of motor vehicle parts and accessories from the former Buessing Plant. As is the case in Berlin-Oberschoeneweide, spare parts for Studebaker and other vehicles are being produced there.
