- Plans are being made by Anthony Woode and his followers to organize a National Peace Movement. A rally is scheduled to take place in February and the Prime Minister, Kwame Nkrumah, appears on the list of intended invitees. A program has not as yet been decided upon.
- When queried as as to the purpose of such a movement, Woode was unable to make any definite statement. Upon the suggestion that this was an attempt to make peace between the National Liberation Movement and the Convention People's Party, Woode replied that that was the last thing he would wish to do.
