This is UNEVALUATED Information

1. At about 2030 on 10, 12 and 14 January 1955, 3, 2, and 3 railroad tank cars respectively were seen at the Oranienburg freight station. The tank cars were attached to boxcars and stood on the track of Germendorf. It was believed that the cars were to be forwarded to Oranienburg airfield. 25X1
2. Between 5 and 17 January 1955 individual flying was practiced by about 3 Po-2s only on 9 and 12 January. It could not be determined how many aircraft were stationed at the field since the doors of the hangars were closed. The aircraft revetments were empty as far as could be seen. [redacted] 25X1
 [redacted] construction work at the Weisse Stadt was to be completed by 1 February. On 6 January, truck [redacted] proceeded from the field to the town. 25X1
3. During the mornings of 18, 21, 22, and 23 January, the field was observed for about 1 hour. No air activity was observed. No aircraft were seen at the field. The doors of the hangars were closed. Tank truck [redacted] and truck [redacted] which was apparently new, were seen. 25X1
4. Between 18 and 23 January, the Weisse Stadt was still occupied by an estimated 300 personnel. Two tank trucks, 1 ambulance and 8 trucks were seen in the parking lot at Breitscheidt Strasse - Thaelmann Strasse intersection, Van-like truck [redacted] entered the Weisse Stadt through the northern gate. 25X1

[redacted] Comment. Oranienburg airfield is still occupied by only a few Po-2s. It is believed possible that the field will be occupied by a bomber unit after the completion of construction work in the Weisse Stadt. 25X1
