1. From 3 to 14 February 1955, the Luftnachrichten Kaserne (4241) in Bernau was occupied by about 2,500 soldiers who wore red-bordered black epaulets, most of them with tank and artillery insignia and some with motor transport insignia. Some of the soldiers wore black or blue-bordered black epaulets. Large weapons observed included one tank, probably a JS-3, and one 122-mm field howitzer. 25X1
2. There was intensive training activity. About 200 soldiers, including some with gasmasks, were engaged in drill and firing practice. The main training was apparently held at the Schoenow training grounds. 25X1
3. 25X1
4. From 3 to 14 February, the army clothing depot I (4244) in Bernau was occupied by 2,500 to 3,000 soldiers who wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery, signal or motor transport insignia. Large weapons seen at the installation included: 25X1

30 motor vehicles including at least 10 rocket launchers, 30 guns of an unidentified type, 20 x 100-mm AT guns, about 20 x 85-mm AT guns, 2 x 57-mm AT guns and 20 caterpillar tractors. More than 100 motor vehicles were seen. The garages were occupied to capacity.

- 5. No heavy weapons were seen leaving the installation. Since 3 caterpillar tractors with 100-mm AT guns and 2 caterpillar tractors with guns were seen at the Schoenow training grounds, it was assumed that part of the unit stayed at the training grounds over night.

- 9. On 7 and 14 February, the Luftnachrichten Kaserne (4241) in Bernau was occupied to capacity. The northern section was 100 percent and the southern section about 75 percent lighted at dusk on these days. On 8 February, a truck column including trucks [redacted] left the installation and went toward Wandlitz. Each truck was occupied by 4 to 6 soldiers who wore black-bordered red epaulets and carried light equipment. On 8 February, two T-34/85 tanks [redacted] and on 14 February, two JS-2 tanks [redacted] one assault gun and truck [redacted] were seen in the area in front of the installation. 1

At 2345. A troop train consisting of an undetermined number of flatcars carrying 19x222mm field howitzers, 2 repair shop trucks, 4 field kitchens, 1 ambulance, 2 sedans, and 45 trucks, 16 boxcars with personnel, and 1 boxcar with ammunition. 8

15. From 7 to 12 February, the barracks installation northwest of Berliner Strasse (4741) in Prenzlau was occupied as previously. Four T-34/85 tanks and 1 JS-2 tank were seen there. On 7 February, about 120 trucks and 12 x 122-mm field howitzers were seen in the northern barracks yard of the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse (4742) in Prenzlau and about 20 trucks, 8 x 85-mm AT guns, 6 x 57-mm AT guns in the southern barracks yard.

16. About 200 soldiers were daily seen engaged in basic training at the installation and about 300 soldiers engaged in combat practice and training in groups in the training area on Sternhagener Weg and at the old training field. Two groups practiced putting on and off of gasmasks and galoshes and subsequently taking shelter under tarpaulins.

17. Five T-34/85 tanks [redacted] were seen at the installation.

25X1

18. The division drivers' school in the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse conducted intensive drivers' training. Trucks observed there included motor vehicle [redacted]

19.

1. [redacted] Comment. No substantial changes were observed in the Luftnachrichten Kaserne (4241) in Bernau.

25X1

2. [redacted] Comment. Rocket launchers were observed in the army clothing depot I (4244) for the first time on 22 January 1955. [redacted] Identification and subordination of this rocket launcher unit cannot yet be determined. The 30 guns of an undetermined type are probably 152-mm field howitzers which are known to have arrived at the 71st Light Arty Brig.
