1. The central ammunition depot of the Sixth Army Corps, with headquarters in Sibiu,¹ is located five kilometers east-southeast of the Sibiu railroad station on the east bank of the Paraul Cibin River. A road leads directly south from the hairpin turn in the Sibiu-Cornatel highway to the depot. The depot covers an area of 600 by 300 meters and is surrounded by two 3-meter high, double apron barbed wire entanglements, eight meters apart. Between the entanglements six watchtowers are located as follows: one in each corner, and one each in the middle of the north and south sides of the area. The towers are occupied by day only. At night sentries patrol the area which is brightly illuminated by searchlights.

2. The following buildings are located within the area:
- a. A two-story administration building in the eastern section of the area.
 - b. a one-story guardhouse.
 - c. 12 warehouses, 30 by 12 meters, built of brick with wooden roofs covered with tarpaper and earthen embankments. They contain artillery ammunition of different types.
 - d. 6 underground warehouses, 12 by 5 meters, built of concrete. These storehouses contain detonators with one and two kilogram detonating charges, powder, safety fuses and mines.
