1. On 3 May 1955, no air activity was conducted at Zerbst airfield. A jet fighter and 4 Yak-11s, all covered with tarpaulins, were parked in front of the hangars. <sup>1</sup>
2. A Kniferest-type radar set was still observed about 1 km southwest in the extension of the runway. A Fishnet-type set was seen 300 meters from the Kniferest. The two sets were not in operation. The operating personnel wore red-bordered black epaulets without insignia. The Token-type set was still located on the northern edge of the landing field. <sup>2</sup>

1.  Comment. It is believed that Zerbst airfield is still occupied by a fighter division headquarters, 1 fighter regiment and 1 reconnaissance regiment equipped with Yak-11s. 25X1

2.  Comment. The Fishnet-type radar set in the southwestern extension of the runway is reported for the first time, while the other radar sets were reported previously.  25X1
