[Redacted area]

1 [Redacted]

the T/O&E of an engineering regiment is three times larger than for a combat engineer (inzhenerno-sapernii) battalion. As for engineer regiments' activity, they are not present in infantry divisions but are found at levels higher than division and execute the orders of the chief or commander in whose command they are assigned. Ordinarily engineer regiments do not distribute their battalions among units (divisions).

2 [Redacted]

T/O&E of ponton regiments. They execute orders of chiefs (commanders) under whose control they are. Also they are not allotted to divisions.

the T/O&E of the engineer brigade and division, there are such units in the Soviet army and apparently at the level of army or front or under control of high command, that is, in wartime.
