OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 4 April 1977

25X1 1. [redacted] LIAISON I forwarded a copy of the January 1977 issue of the "National Basic Intelligence Factbook" to Thomas Smeeton, House International Relations Committee staff, per his request.

25X1 2. [redacted] LIAISON Sent to Bob Sutter, CRS, wall size maps of China, Asia and the World, per his earlier request.

25X1 4. [redacted] FBIS Jeff Strandberg, in the office of Senator Dale Bumpers (D., Ark.), called and requested a subscription to the FBIS Daily Report on the Soviet Union. The room number is 6243 Dirksen Senate Office Building. FBIS is handling.

25X1 5. [redacted] LIAISON Left for Bill Hogan, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, a suggested reply for the Committee's response to an inquiry from Representative John J. Rhodes (R., Ariz.) concerning [redacted]

25X1 I discussed with Mr. Hogan's secretary scheduling of a briefing of the Subcommittee on Intelligence and Military Application of Nuclear Energy [redacted] for the past two years which was requested during the last Agency briefing of the Subcommittee. Mr. Hogan will call me to confirm arrangements, probably not until after 18 April.

25X1 6. [redacted] BRIEFING Received a call from Keith Adkinson, Senate Government Operations Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations staff, to tentatively set up Thursday afternoon, 7 April, for Senator Sam Nunn's (D., Ga.) briefing on the Agency's activities in combatting illegal narcotics trafficking. I checked Mr. Shackley's, ADDO, office and advised Adkinson that it can be arranged. Adkinson will confirm with Senator Nunn.

25X1 7. [] Met briefly with Jim Cline, General Counsel, House Judiciary Committee, and Skip Endrus, House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law. Cline said a meeting will be held tomorrow at 2:00 p.m. in Room 2141 Rayburn Building to discuss the Committee's investigation of Immigration and Naturalization Service's handling of the immigration of alleged Nazi war criminals. There will be representatives from the Justice Department, I&NS, and the State Department and he asked that I attend. I confirmed to him the Agency's position in this matter and that we would have little to offer. He said he completely understood but felt that I should attend to listen in and see how the Agency fits into this problem, if at all.

25X1 8. [] LIAISON Received a call from Ted Kazy, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee staff, inquiring as to the pay and retirement status of a CIARDS annuitant reemployed on the Hill. He said he was calling on behalf of an annuitant who is applying for a position. I explained the existing policy and that the Civil Service Commission now has the matter under review.

25X1 9. [] LIAISON Charles Snodgrass, House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee staff, called and said that Representative Jack Edwards (R., Ala.) would be going on the trip to China from 7 through 14 April and
25X1 [] I indicated the Director's interest to have us brief these members, and Snodgrass is going to talk to Mr. Edwards and find out if he has time for a briefing before he goes. Bill Wells, DDO,
25X1 and [] DDI/CPS, have been alerted.

25X1 10. [] LIAISON Called Dan Childs, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and said the Director would like to make the session on 7 April a session with Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii), Vice Chairman Barry Goldwater (R., Ariz.) and himself because he was having a session with the President on 6 April. Childs said this posed problems for him because of budget timetables. (I have

11. [Redacted] LIAISON Called Earl Eisenhower, Minority Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, about the Micronesia statement and told him [Redacted] was talking to Bill Miller, Staff Director of the Committee. Eisenhower said he had talked to Senator Barry Goldwater (R., Ariz.) this morning about the statement, and that the Senator was going to do everything he could to get the sentence taken out of the statement. He said Senator Jake Garn (R., Utah) was getting his letter to all members today. He agreed with us that the sentence did not contribute anything to the overall impact, and it posed serious problems for us and State Department.

I also talked with Eisenhower about S. 305, and he said he talked with Howard Liebengood, of the Senate Minority Leader's office, to elicit support for our request for an amendment to the bill. I said it had been suggested that we get in touch with Senator William Proxmire (D., Wis.) but the general feeling was we should have our Senators who have a mutuality of Committee interest carry the water for us. Eisenhower said he agreed with that approach, and I have indicated that I will get in touch with Senator Adlai Stevenson (D., Ill.).

I also talked to him about the 7 April session before the Committee and told him [Redacted] had talked to Bill Miller. I said the Director would be talking with the President about this on 6 April. Eisenhower was sympathetic to the Director's situation and also concerned about the sensitivity of the information involved and that he was already trying to see if the session could be put over until after the Easter recess as Senator Goldwater would be away. The Director and Mr. Knoche were advised.

12. [Redacted] LIAISON Talked with Norvill Jones, Staff Director, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, about our meeting with Chairman John Sparkman (D., Ala.) and Senator Clifford Case (R., N. J.). He understood that the bulk of our presentation on covert action, especially the detailed information, would be given off the record, but I am preparing a short statement the Director could give on the record which would indicate the status of the programs by finding dates. With respect to the Case Act, he said he did not feel that this should be completely overlooked, but agreed that we could advise the Senators that this was a matter which was looked at; which we discussed with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence; and is being reviewed by the current Administration. When this review is completed, we will be back in touch.

13. [redacted] LIAISON Called Sam Hoskinson, National Security Council staff, to tell him that the correspondence that went to the White House on the Case Act had been a memo from Mr. Knoche to Jerrold Schecter, NSC staff, as well as to Robert Lipshutz, Counsel to the President. He was unaware of the memoranda, and I sent him a copy. He said he would do what he could.

14. [redacted] LIAISON Based on the advice of [redacted] OGC, I called Wanda Armstrong, on the staff of Representative Robert E. Bauman (R., Md.), indicating that we had been in touch with [redacted] and were providing the assistance we could. Ms. Armstrong was very pleased with this outcome.

15. [redacted] LIAISON Jeff Porro, on the staff of Senator Howard M. Metzenbaum (D., Ohio), called on referral from the Department of State for such information the CIA may have on foreign equity in the U.S., including deposits in U.S. banks. The concern is the amount of leverage OPEC countries may have on U.S. banks, etc., which was stimulated by a Jack Anderson column referring to a CIA report identifying some $34 billion in this category. I explained that generally we did not have precise information on the U.S. side of the equation but we would see what we can provide on capital flow.

17. [Redacted] LIAISON Accompanied [Redacted]

[Redacted] SA-D/DCI/IC, and [Redacted] O/DCI, to a meeting with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and Elliot Maxwell, also on the Committee staff, to discuss the Committee's draft legislation. [Redacted] made a number of constructive suggestions, which were received with the understanding that they were personal statements and did not represent any official views. I addressed the problem areas, making the Congress a statutory client for intelligence production and specifying categories for reporting as opposed to the fully and currently informed formula on the basis of its impact on foreign collaborators. Maxwell was receptive in both areas but in the latter only if there is a prior commitment to report the specific topics covered by the language in the bill. Maxwell indicated that the NSA charter, of some 42 pages, would be available sometime during the last week in April and the CIA charter by the middle of May. It is clear that all the titles of the bill, including entity charters, will not be ready by Miller's target date of 1 May, and concentration on Title I as a separate bill will result.

I informed Miller that the DCI would be meeting with the President on 6 April to discuss matters related to the 7 April session requested by the Committee to discuss sensitive collection operations. Under these circumstances, I suggested that the DCI meet with the Chairman and Vice Chairman on the 7th to discuss the outcome in lieu of the scheduling of a full Committee session. Miller said he would raise this possibility but indicated the outcome would depend on Admiral Turner's views on providing such information to the Committee. I said that I thought the President's attitude was vitally important.

I explained to Miller that some staffers in the Committee had suggested that we be in direct contact with Senator William W. Proxmire (D., Wis.) on S. 305, a bill to expand reporting requirements for publicly held corporations and to outlaw certain payments to foreigners by U.S. corporations and other persons. Miller felt very strongly that this would be the wrong approach; that we should continue to work only through the Members of the Select Committee who are also on the Senate Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee, and Senator Adlai E. Stevenson (D., Ill.), who had also focused on the legislation and had raised the problem with the bribery section was the key Member.

18. [Redacted] LIAISON Took a call from Eleanor Holmes, in the office of Representative Charles Whalen, Jr. (R., Ohio). Holmes said that the Congressman was on a radio talk show and that he had been asked about Agency activities [Redacted] Holmes asked for any information I could give her on the subject and I explained the allegations in the Washington Post and the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence investigation and pending report, but did not discuss any of the activities.

19. [Redacted] LIAISON Talked with Evelyn Chavoor, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, about the Committee's 29 March letter forwarding an inquiry from an official of the Irish Americans. The official alleged that the FBI and CIA were conducting illegal surveillance of Irish Americans. I asked Chavoor if the Committee wanted Admiral Stansfield Turner to respond for the FBI, in addition to the CIA. She replied that the Committee would send a separate letter to the FBI.

20. [Redacted] LIAISON Bob Sutter, of the Congressional Research Service Foreign Affairs and National Defense Division, called to ask for some biographies of Chinese leaders and city information on China for a briefing his chief is to do on 5 April 1977, for Senator John Culver (D., Iowa). Sutter agreed that his chief would cite CIA as the source of the material, but asked that we not report our contribution independently to Senator Culver's office. [Redacted] CPS, took on the job of collecting the requested material.

21. [Redacted] BRIEFING I called Doug Brown, of the office of Senator John Culver (D., Iowa), to report that a courier was on the way with material on China which Jim Lilley, NIO for China, agreed to get to Senator Culver after Lilley briefed him on 1 April 1977.

He said that mark-up will be completed this week and that he expects Senator Adlai Stevenson (D., Ill.) to offer an amendment concerning section 107 of the bill which would require reporting transferring of technological information to foreign countries to the Secretary of Commerce.

25X1 2. [Redacted] LIAISON Talked with Helen Wise, of the Subcommittee on Energy of the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee, in regard to a report on Nuclear Proliferation and Safeguards which [Redacted] ORPA, would like to see.
