19. [Redacted] LIAISON Met with Dan Childs, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and discussed the requirement in the Committee FY-1979 authorization report for a study on clandestine collection. Childs said he thought the kind of study asked for should be done by the Agency annually as a management tool. He did not feel it was an onerous request on the DDO.

37. [redacted] LIAISON Received a call from Nick Lauderdale, German Desk, Department of State, who wanted a copy of the 20 April 1978 open session transcript of the Agency's testimony before the Oversight Subcommittee of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence. He was particularly interested in the portions which dealt with Radio Free Europe. I told him that it was Committee property and that I was not free to release it. I suggested to him that he ask the Committee for copies of pages 39 and 40 (as the only applicable pages, where Representative Clement J. Zablocki (D., Wis.) asked some questions about Radio Free Europe). Mr. Lauderdale thanked me and said that he would get back to the Committee.
