1 [Redacted] LIAISON Accompanied Loch Johnson, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to briefings at Headquarters by Robert Gambino, Director of Security, and [Redacted] Chief, Covert Action Staff. Mr. Gambino gave Loch an overview of Security's responsibilities and spoke in detail on applicant and employee investigation procedures and the use of the polygraph. [Redacted] discussed the two most recent Presidential Findings [Redacted] gave background on the use of reprogramming reserve release funding, and considered the idea of a two-tier briefing system (oral and specific to selected staff, more general to Members) for future notification on Findings. 2. [Redacted] LIAISON Received a call from Mrs. Coker, in the office of Representative Robert Lagomarsino (R., Calif.), requesting a copy of the National Basic Intelligence Factbook, which was forwarded to her.

3. [Redacted] LIAISON Received a call from Duane Andrews, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, who asked that we send a cable to Jim Bush, also of the Committee staff, informing him of the re-election of Representatives Edward P. Boland (D., Mass.), Bill D. Burlison (D., Mo.), J. Kenneth Robinson (R., Va.), and Senator William D. Hathaway (D., Maine).

4. [Redacted] LIAISON Called Duane Andrews, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to ask if Representative Bill D. Burlison (D., Mo.) could meet with the Director on either 21 or 27 November for lunch and for briefings on his upcoming trip. After checking with the Congressman's office, Andrews said the 21st was out and the 27th was available, but that Mr. Burlison would be leaving town that day and would prefer to have the day open for cleaning up office matters. Andrews said they would prefer 24 November, but would leave it to the Director as to whether he needed to see Mr. Burlison or not. I asked [Redacted] OLC, to get a reading from Fred Hitz.
