NORTHWEST FEDERAL CREDIT UNION
ACTIVITIES PROGRAM
Fiscal Year Ending - 30 June 1964

Since the Credit Union operates on a calendar year basis, attached to and forming a part of this report are the annual Credit Union financial and statistical reports for the period ended 31 December 1963. These reports reflect Credit Union growth during the past five years. In order to give a more significant picture of the actual growth and scope of the Credit Union operation, I will use comparative figures and percentages taken from the 1963 report of operations of Federal Credit Unions.

Federal Credit Unions are cooperative associations organized in accordance with the Federal Credit Union Act "to promote thrift among their members and create a source of credit for provident and productive purposes." Membership is limited to a group of persons having a common bond of association, occupation, or residence. Federal Credit Unions are chartered, examined, and supervised by the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions. The Bureau's operating expenses are borne by the Federal Credit Unions; the Bureau receives no direct appropriation of public funds.

Members' shareholdings are not insured by an agency of the Government.

The Credit Union's assets have grown over one million staff to remain well-orientated on new equipment. Over the course of the year the manager and assistant manager have attended numerous seminars and machine exhibits.

The machine industry is constantly improving their equipment. They now have electronic machines that are completely transistorized, which is a big improvement over the tube-type machines that are now being used by the Credit Union. It is anticipated that within the next few years, our present machines will have to be replaced.

The Credit Union was in the process of increasing their T/O last year at this time. We received approval of [REDACTED] positions from the Board of Directors. We have recently, within the past month, increased the T/O to [REDACTED] with an anticipation in the near future of one or two additional employees.

During the past Fiscal Year a certain amount of success has been realized in the Suggestion and Invention Awards program through continuous advertising of its value as a good management tool. This advertising has been through briefings, individual contacts with the supervisors, and special attention to effective Awards ceremonies. Literally hundreds of employees have been briefed on the goals of the suggestion system.

When President Johnson's economy drive was launched, the Suggestion Awards program was used as one of the means to achieve Economy in Government. The [redacted] introduced a contest to solicit Economy ideas. As a matter of fact, the Directors of the Office of Logistics and of the NPIC have enhanced the stature of their Internal Panels, and through these Panels have emphasized the value of the suggestion system to their operations. As a result they have realized substantial improvements and have earned substantial awards for their employees.

Publicity for the program has been through the SUGGESTION EXCHANGE, new posters, film showings, handouts in the cafeterias, and articles in the Support Bulletin. However, the most effective publicity has been achieved through the personal contacts in the various Offices, and in the OTR training courses.

There were some very unusual suggestion awards paid in this fiscal year--one for $7500.00 to a GS-11 technician in OC, one for $755.00 to a GS-7 Supply Clerk in OL, one interim award of $1000.00 to a Photo Interpreter in NPIC, and one for $500.00 to a Special Operations employee in the DD/P for a most significant technical improvement.

The plans and objectives for FY 1966 will be very similar to the plans described for the Incentive Awards Program in FY 1965. As stated last year, a procedural manual should be published describing the Agency's precise criteria for available awards.
