

28 January 1969

25X1A

I had a two-hour conversation with [REDACTED] telling him about our work and testing his response. In spite of his perhaps less than ideal educational background, he apparently really likes systems analysis and plans to follow his year's work with additional courses in local universities. He did not appear anxious to return to the job he left and therefore could be considered as a potential candidate for consideration in NIPE/SAG.

25X1A

[REDACTED]