Office of Science & Technology
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20506

Dear Tom:

This letter is going to be full of requests for information--so brace yourself.

First, in connection with our visit last Wednesday morning, I would like to confirm hereby the requests for information I made orally at the time.

1. A copy of the final report in the version where the tables are on blue paper.
2. Data on the percentage of classified requests to the files listed in the exhibit, broken down according to the agencies which are of a column or row headings in those tables.
3. Some background material on the National Drivers Registration Service of the Bureau of Public Roads, Department of Commerce.
4. Data on case studies of file conversion problems ~~for~~ some data on improvements in name search and name find thought possible now with off-the-shelf techniques versus those that require longer range solutions.

If you can forward this material as you receive it either to my office or to me, care of Selfridge, depending on its nature, I'll be most grateful.

You will also recall that a so-called  report was mentioned several times during our briefings. I think this report is likely to be highly relevant to my problems and I would very much appreciate your making a copy of it available to me the next time I come to Washington. On the same basis, I would like to have a look at the Bundy memorandum of 17 June 1963 on intelligence objectives.

Best regards.

Sincerely yours,
