File: Congressional Relations

1. Today the Director offered the Daily to Senator Stennis and the members of the Senate Armed Services Committee. Senator Stennis and a number of the Committee members expressed interest in receiving the Daily, so they will.
2. We will handle this delivery as we do those to Senator McClellan and Congressman Nedzi. The Daily should be delivered to Mr. John T. Ticer, Room 212, Russell Office Building after 0900 each morning, and recovered from Mr. Ticer each afternoon. Mr. Ticer is the Chief Clerk to the Committee and holds appropriate clearances.
3. Please use an un-numbered copy of the Daily marked:

Eyes Only For Mr. Ticer, Mr. Braswell, and Members Only of the Senate Armed Services Committee.
4. As is the case with our other Congressional Daily deliveries the publication should not be left if Mr. Ticer is not there. I have told him that the OCI couriers would use their ID cards until they became acquainted, and that a list of the couriers would be left with him. He will receipt for the Daily and probably ask the pick-up courier for a receipt.

5. Delivery should begin tomorrow, Wednesday, 31 July.

6. We have terminated delivery of the National Intelligence Bulletin to Mr. Braswell.
