Dear Mr. Colby:

I am writing to express my deep appreciation for making Carl Duckett available in connection with the preparation of the intelligence information which I presented to the closed session of the Senate on September 25, 1973.

He and his associates spent the weekend in preparing the necessary material. His advice and counsel were invaluable. I have nothing but admiration and respect for his outstanding professionalism.

With best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Henry M. Jackson, U.S.S.

Dear Ed,

The attached letter of deep appreciation to me from Senator Jackson is directly attributable to the excellent analytical support I received from your Directorate.

Please extend my personal thanks to
 for a job well done.
