Dear Mr. Stanley:

Thank you very much for your invitation to attend the Thirteenth STRATEGY FOR PEACE CONFERENCE at Airlie House.

The program looks most interesting, but, unfortunately, I will be unable to attend myself. I would like to suggest in my stead one of my associates, [redacted] I enclose a reservation request in his name.

Sincerely,

Richard Helms

Executive Director

We cordially invite you to attend the Thirteenth STRATEGY FOR PEACE CONFERENCE, scheduled for October 12-15, 1972, at Airlie House, near Warrenton, Virginia. Attached is general conference information.

Strategy for Peace Conferences, concentrating on U.S. foreign policy, have continued because discussions have focused on current topical international issues of the day. The informal, off-the-record conversations have provoked thought, research and study toward a more enlightened foreign policy.

We expect 120 participants, including graduate students, young professionals, government officials, businessmen, and academicians. Prompt submission of the attached reservation request card is strongly recommended due to limited conference facilities.

We anticipate stimulating and productive discussions and deeply hope you will be able to participate. Should you be unable to attend, we welcome alternative participant suggestions. There will be free chartered round trip bus service from Washington, D.C., to Airlie House.

Thanking you for your kind consideration and looking forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience, I remain

Sincerely yours,

C. Maxwell Stanley
