MEMORANDUM FOR: See Distribution

SUBJECT : Tactical Fusion Center Briefing

1. On Tuesday, 8 July, in the DCI Conference Room at 1630-1730 hours a briefing will be provided on current plans for developing a Tactical Fusion Center in the command

25X1 [redacted] The briefer will be Brigadier General John Pustay, the Air Force Deputy Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence.

2. General Pustay has directed a study to develop an evolutionary plan for a facility which would use multi-source intelligence data and integrate it with operations data to enhance command and control of Allied Forces in the central region of Europe. The facility is known as the Tactical Fusion Center and focuses on the following intelligence support:

- Integrates operations and intelligence data.
- Employs semi-automatic processing and graphics display of information.
- Provides near-real-time response to battle staff and critical resource matters.
- Provides unique fusion capability for NATO.

3. One of the main problems that the DCI eventually may have to come to grips with is the data classification
