MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for National Foreign Assessment
FROM: Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Morning Meeting Minutes of 14 June 1978

1. In the Morning Meeting Minutes of 14 June I note that we had been turning cartwheels to respond to two of David Aaron's requests:

a. For documentation of Castro's lies during the Cuban missile crisis;

b. For a background paper on Soviet motives in [redacted]

2. I'd like to make sure that I am kept advised on these, and when one has policy implications like [redacted] one that I'm brought into it. (I recognize we did discuss this so I did feel brought in on this one.) I want to be responsive to the NSC but I continue to not want to be caught in the position of being asked a question by Aaron, Brzezinski or the President on a CIA document that I have neither seen nor approved.

3. Additionally in the same Minutes, there was an expression of unease about the situation [redacted] thinking about a military alternative. I think it would be appropriate for us to do a think piece on [redacted] a military alternative available to him and what steps it would take for him to ready it.
