Dear Admiral Raborn:

25X1 [redacted] a member of your staff, attended The National War College during the recently completed academic year. During our course on counterinsurgency, he presented a very fine lecture, based on his Individual Research Paper, entitled "The Meo, A Southeast Asia Hill Tribe, as a Factor in U. S. Strategy."

With your permission, we would like to have [redacted] return to the College and make the same presentation to the incoming class at 1400 hours on Monday, 16 August 1965.

25X1 [redacted] is aware of this request and has agreed to make the presentation provided that permission is obtained. If this meets with your approval, may I suggest that [redacted] contact Dr. Harold W. Chase of our faculty (Code 11, OXford 5-8403), who will give him any further information necessary for his visit to the College.

Sincerely,

FITZHUGH LEE
