MEMORANDUM FOR: DDCI

SUBJECT : Assignment of a CIA Officer to the National War College Faculty

This is a subject which was raised most informally by Ambassador Berger, now on the War College staff. He discussed it with some of our people who thought it was interesting, and apparently has mentioned it to Admiral Fitzhugh Lee. This is about as far as it has progressed at the moment. The next step is for me to have lunch with Sam Berger and see if we think it would be feasible. If we agree that it would be, then we would want Berger to sound out the National War College faculty and staff to see if they would be receptive, which is questionable. If it progresses this far favorably, then, of course, it has to go to the JCS for their approval. The attitude in the Agency is also skeptical, so there is a certain amount of proving to be done on both sides. I therefore feel that it is very premature for General Carter to concern himself with it other than being kept informed of the progress.
