United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator Morse:

Thank you for your letter of 9 January concerning the application of [redacted]

[redacted] wrote to us on 4 November 1963 regarding his interest in employment with us and was invited to complete the necessary application forms. His application was under active consideration when it became necessary to curtail much of our recruitment activity in light of recent budgetary and personnel ceiling restrictions. [redacted] application has been suspended for reconsideration in February to determine whether an appropriate vacancy has developed.

Your interest in writing to me in [redacted] behalf was appreciated. Although we have not been in a position to offer him employment as yet, you may be sure that he will receive every consideration should a suitable opening become available.

Sincerely,

(Signed)

John A. McCone
