Honorable John Jarman
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Jarman:

Thank you for your letter of 28 May 1965 regarding [redacted] whom you described as being interested in the possibilities of employment with this Agency.

I appreciate your advising us of [redacted] interest in the Agency and I am particularly interested in your assessment of this young lady. On the strength of your recommendation and [redacted] resume, I have instructed our personnel to contact her directly. We will be pleased to discuss employment opportunities with her and will, of course, give her application every consideration. We will keep you advised of our contacts with her.

I am grateful for your kind personal thoughts. Your expression of support is most appreciated.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

W. F. Raborn
