The Honorable Robert A. Everett
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Everett:

Thank you for your letter of 3 August 1966 concerning the son of a friend of yours who is interested in preparing himself for a career with the Central Intelligence Agency.

I am pleased to know of his interest in our work and am enclosing a brochure describing our general employment requirements and opportunities which you may wish to forward to him. You may also wish to advise him somewhat along the following lines:

The Central Intelligence Agency conducts continuing recruitment of bright young men and women who wish to make their careers in intelligence work. The range of qualifications required by the Agency is so broad that many courses may lead to appointment. A good knowledge of history, interest and familiarity with international affairs, and foreign language knowledge are important regardless of the individual's field of academic specialization.

Your interest in writing to me in his behalf is appreciated. If he should decide to explore employment possibilities with us at a later date, you may be sure that we shall give his application every consideration.

Sincerely,

/s/ Richard Helms
