Dear Senator Mansfield:

Thank you for your letter of 17 January 1966 enclosing

I am pleased to know of [redacted] interest in government service and am enclosing a brochure describing our general employment requirements and opportunities which you may wish to forward to her. In addition, you might wish to advise her somewhat along the following lines:

The Central Intelligence Agency conducts continuing recruitment of bright young men and women who wish to make their careers in intelligence work. The range of qualifications required by the Agency is so broad that many courses may lead to appointment. A good knowledge of history, interest and familiarity with international affairs, and foreign language knowledge are important regardless of the individual's field of academic specialization.

Your interest in writing to me in [redacted] behalf is appreciated and I hope that the information supplied above will be helpful to you in responding to her inquiry. I am also returning [redacted] letter to you as you requested.

S

Sincerely,

((signed) W. F. Raborn
