SACEUR AUTHORITY TO DECLARE SIMPLE ALERT IN AN EMERGENCY

In the event of a sudden and acute emergency of such a nature that time would not permit following the normal procedure for declaring a Simple Alert, the United States delegates this authority to SACEUR, but not to his Major Subordinate Commanders. This delegation of authority does not extend to those measures on which the United States has placed reservations (Category III). These measures will be given immediate consideration by the United States and SACEUR will be informed of their status after declaration of Simple Alert.
