Dear Mr. Zook:

This letter is in respons	e to yours of February 18
concerning the qualifications of	for appointment
as a Foreign Service officer.

I can give you very little detailed information on this young man, for although I have known him for some ten years I have not known him intimately or been in a position to observe his work in college or elsewhere. However, everything I do know about him is favorable.

He is the son of

IN REPLY REFER TO:

Dear Mr. McCone:

is a candidate for appointment as a Foreign Service officer. He has given your name as a reference.

It would be greatly appreciated if you would give the Board of Examiners as full a statement as possible of your opinion of this candidate's qualifications and suitability for appointment as a Foreign Service officer, with special attention to intellectual ability, personality, character, temperament and loyalty. The Board is interested in knowing of any pertinent weaknesses or defects in our candidates as well as their strong points. In your own case, the question of whether or not you would be pleased to have this candidate serve as a member of your staff is of particular importance.

I should be very grateful for any help you can give in selecting officers for the Foreign Service. Anything you write will be for the use of the Board of Examiners and will not be revealed to the candidate. The enclosed reference questionnaire will indicate the type of information we seek regarding candidates for the Foreign Service. As this candidate's oral examination is scheduled to be held soon, it would be helpful if your reply could be received by the Board within two weeks of the date of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Director

Board of Examiners for the Foreign Service

Enclosure:

(Name of Candidate)

The Honorable John A. McCone, 3025 Whitehaven Street, Washington, D. C.

The Board of Examiners for the Foreign Service is conducting an inquiry relative to the person named above, who is being considered further for appointment as a Foreign Service officer after having successfully passed a difficult writter examination.

Foreign Service officers for the Department of State and the United States Information Agency are selected through open competition for appointment by the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate, to carry out the foreign policies of the United States. In view of the responsible nature of this career service, the Board must have complete information and candid opinions concerning not only the candidates? Storage points but also their weaknesses, defects or adverse qualities. Foreign Service officers must not only be competent in their work but must also be persons whose loyalty, intellectual capabilities, in which the leaders and the people of foreign countries. Only a few can be selected from the large number of outstanding young people who apply. The standards are necessarily high.

As a public service, will you please evaluate this candidate's personal and profes-sional qualifications for a position of national treat and responsibility in the Foreign Service? Your regists will, of course, be held in confidence. You are useful obeat the following question in said in making your application in from: "Is this condidore operson whom I would select to represent the United Streen above?"

It would be most helpful if your comments could be received by the Board within two weeks of the date of this letter so that preparations may be made for the candidate's oral examination. Please forward this form in the enclosed envelope, which requires no postage if mailed in the United States. Thank you for your cooperation.
