MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: [redacted]

1. At the request of the Director, relayed through Colonel White, [redacted] talked with Senator Symington's personal secretary, Mrs. Virginia Laird. She was advised that the Director had wished to offer Senator Symington a briefing concerning Mrs. [redacted] and her employment with the Agency. It was indicated that Colonel White would do this briefing, if desired, at any time suitable to the Senator. Mrs. Laird stated she would bring this to the Senator's attention.

2. Mrs. Laird advised [redacted] later and John S. Warner confirmed it again on 26 October that the Senator gave no indication that he was at all interested in being briefed on the case or was in any way interested in the case. I assured Mrs. Laird that we merely wanted to be helpful and were not pushing the matter.
