Acting Assistant Attorney General
Internal Security Division
Department of Justice
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Yeagley:

Further to your letter of 28 April and my response of 8 May concerning the case of United States v. [redacted] I am now able to inform you that there is no security objection on the part of this Agency [redacted] to having [redacted] testify in connection with the trial. It appears that only [redacted] himself can tell whether there are other difficulties in connection with his appearance as a witness. It is possible that he might [redacted] and this may give him personal hesitation. However, as far as we are concerned, you may proceed in such manner as you deem appropriate to obtain his testimony.

Dear Mr. Yeagley:

Your letter of 28 April 1958 concerning the case of United States v. [redacted] was referred to me for action. It is necessary for us to look into the whereabouts and circumstances of [redacted] and to confer with [redacted] on any problems involved in his testifying in this trial. These steps are in progress and we hope to have some answers shortly.

From your letter I infer that the United States Attorney wishes to have [redacted] appear in person and testify at the trial. We will try to find out whether this presents any problems aside from the security aspects.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
