Honorable Allen W. Dulles
 Director
 Central Intelligence Agency
 Administration Building
 2430 E Street, N. W.
 Washington 25, D. C.

My dear Mr. Dulles:

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past supplied the following information as related by Timur Timofeevich Timofeev (Timmy Dennis), son of the late Eugene Dennis, former National Chairman of the Communist Party, USA. Timofeev is employed by the Institute of World Economics and International Affairs, Academy of Sciences, Moscow, Russia, and is closely associated with members of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU).

According to Timofeev, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has recently had "one hell of a fight" with the Central Committee of the CPSU. The military leaders and others in the leadership of the CPSU questioned what the Soviet Union has gained by Khrushchev's policies of "peaceful coexistence," unilateral discontinuance of nuclear bomb testing and disarmament. Khrushchev was challenged on whether these actions have not "put the people to sleep, demobilized the peace movement and demoralized the youth."

There has also developed among the youth in the Soviet Union a war psychosis pushing for a war policy. The masses of Soviet citizens, however, have a different feeling toward war and although they will fight for their own country, they do not want to fight or die for the Germans.

This communication has been classified "Top Secret" due to the sensitive nature of our source. This information is being furnished to other appropriate officials of the Government.

Sincerely yours,
