Dear Mr. Bennett:

Thank you for your letter of 14 November concerning [redacted]

STAT

I have learned that [redacted] visited the Agency's offices last August to discuss his interest in service with us. He provided us at that time with a brochure describing his background and experience and this material was reviewed in light of our requirements for personnel. However, there appeared to be no opportunity for taking advantage of his generous offer and he was advised of this in a letter dated 18 September 1961.

STAT

[redacted] appeared to be well motivated and was flexible concerning the specific nature of employment with us. Accordingly, I have asked that his file again be brought to the attention of appropriate officials for review in light of any changes that might have occurred in recent weeks.

Your interest in writing to me on behalf of [redacted] is appreciated and we shall advise you of the results of our current review of his application.

STAT

Sincerely,

CONCUR:
