Dear Mr. Bell:

Your memorandum of 25 September 1961 advising us of the specific 1963 planning totals approved for our guidance in the preparation of our Fiscal Year 1963 budget estimates was received on 26 September. As these estimates were due for submission by Bureau of the Budget directive on 30 September, they were already in the process of being printed and we could not, without substantial delay, incorporate any changes.

Please be assured that we are, of course, prepared to discuss the questions raised by your memorandum at any time at your convenience.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
