Dear Mr. Dulles:

I thought you would be interested in the following information obtained as a result of our over-all coverage of the Communist Party, USA, concerning statements made in Havana, Cuba, by Blas Roca, General Secretary of the Partido Socialista Popular (PSP), the Communist Party of Cuba. These statements were made during August, 1960.

Roca stated that the life of the Cuban revolution depends on the unity of the PSP, the July 26 Movement and the March 13 Directorate. The July 26 Movement and the March 13 Directorate, other main forces in the Cuban Government, are looked upon by the PSP as representing the national bourgeoisie.

Roca mentioned four tasks of the revolution: (1) unity; (2) greater production; (3) strengthening the armed defense and might of the country; and (4) elevating the revolutionary consciousness of the people. These tasks were repeated over and over again by various speakers at the Eighth National Assembly of the PSP, which was held in Havana from August 16, 1960, through August 21, 1960.

Information furnished our sources discloses that PSP members spend a few hours, five days a week, in military training, guard duty and ideological training. Most Party members wear the uniform of the militia and carry firearms. The building housing PSP headquarters, 306 Carlos III Avenue, Havana, Cuba, is being remodeled; air conditioning and sound-proofing are being installed.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I thought you would be interested in the following information obtained as a result of our over-all coverage of the Communist Party, USA, concerning a statement made in Havana, Cuba, by Constantine Telalev. Telalev was in Havana in August, 1960, as a delegate from the Communist Party of Bulgaria to the Eighth National Assembly of the Partido Socialista Popular, the Communist Party of Cuba.

Telalev stated that Bulgaria does not want to exchange cultural or other types of delegations with the United States since the delegations from the United States could reach people in all of Bulgaria. On the other hand, Telalev stated, there are only 50,000 Bulgarians in the United States and any Bulgarian delegation to the United States could only reach a fraction of this number. The United States State Department has Bulgaria "over a barrel," Telalev commented, since the Bulgarian Government does not know how to refuse a request of the United States State Department for an exchange of delegations.

Because of the sensitive nature of our sources, who have furnished reliable information in the past, it is requested that the contents of this communication be afforded
