Dear Pearre:
appreciate having had the opposition of the possible sources of employed to get your advice as to the possible which, I assure you, I am viencouragement which you gave I have come to the following continuerested in joining the Agency little from a financial viewpoint important. The above statemed commitment at this time on my me something. I am starting the determine what they have to of time ago to serve until mandate early voluntary retirement, I woluntary retirement unless so developed.	ot made any effort to contact any oyment, as before doing so I wanted sibility of working in your activity itally interested. I appreciate the and, after thinking the matter over, inclusions. I am still very much y, although I realize that it offers at. However, this is not too ent is not to be construed as a firm y part, in case you decide to offer to make some other contacts to effer. Having decided quite some cory retirement rather than request feel that I would not want to request omething which was really overriding
Washington area is where we that will be it. However, I wo	are going to locate, so I suppose
I hope the above gives y	ou the information required in u desire to give my application further consideration.
