Noted by B. D. DSI

Director's Meeting

Friday, 20 July 1951

Mr. Wolf remarked that we had amateurs trying to do a professional job in procurement. The Director stated that General [redacted] was the best procurement man in the army and that he would call him. W

The DCI stated that there was a great need for general field inspection and that we might possibly take on [redacted] for this job. Mr. [redacted] thinks that [redacted] is very strong on substantive intelligence matters and is a good administrator. He also thinks that [redacted] might be a possible successor for Dr. Millikan if Millikan has to leave. The DCI, however, believes that he would be a high-level trouble shooter.

In relation to the above, Mr. Wolf wants someone to examine the foreign field from the administrative point of view. The DCI agrees.

Mr. [redacted] reported that General Chenault is in Washington and would like to see the DCI. General Smith agreed to see him at 4:30.
