PRESENT: General Smith, Messrs. Dulles, Wisner, Wolf, Amory,

25X1

General Smith:

S. 11-25-52

a. Asked Mr. Wisner to look into the matter referred to in item 4 of the CIB dated 11 November 1952 and stated if the information contained therein was true we should do something about this situation. Info considered but found to be not too good.

f. Referred to a pouchgram from the [redacted] and [redacted] after some discussion wherein it was pointed out that our [redacted] had received standing instructions to keep their respective ambassadors informed of all political information collected, the Director stated that (1) our relations with ambassadors should, by and large, be based on the personal characteristics of the ambassador himself; (2) he would like to feel that his [redacted] could send him messages containing political or any other type of information without necessarily first making the information available to the ambassador and, in particular, in the case of personal contacts who might wish to get a personal message to him. (After some further discussion, Mr. Dulles undertook to determine what the State Department had received from the U.S. Ambassador [redacted] concerning the matter referred to in the above-mentioned pouchgram.

b. Stated he had gone over the [redacted] report and would have recommendations for the Director in the very near future.

Mr. Wisner:

a. Noted that [redacted] was open-minded regarding accepting a position with CIA and had indicated particular interest in NCFE; however, [redacted] would probably be about four weeks before he finally determined what he was going to do. In this connection, Mr. Wisner stated he had not made any actual commitment to [redacted]; however, he believed with some "slight arm twisting"

[redacted] would accept the position as [redacted] NCFE. The Director said 5-11-2002 the best way to handle this was through Cabot Lodge. Mr. Dulles suggested that we might first touch base with the people in [redacted] regarding the appointment of [redacted] to NCFE. The DCI noted he did not believe it necessary in every instance to "bow" to the wishes of the Committee.

c. Noted that a memorandum concerning the [redacted] had been prepared as requested by the DCI. (NOTE: The Director has received this memorandum.)

a. Recommended that the IAC meeting for Thursday, 13 November, be cancelled in view of the fact there was only one item for consideration. The Director approved.

b. Reported he had met with the Estimates Board in regard to NIE 40 and it had been decided to scrub this estimate; however, the EIC comments pertaining thereto would be circulated to the working level people.

d. Asked the Director if there was any information as a result of his conversation with [redacted] that should be brought to the attention of the intelligence offices. The Director stated that there was nothing in particular; however, it might be well for someone to call on [redacted] in his [redacted] since he did have certain items of interest as a result of his trip [redacted]. Mr. Amory noted that [redacted] had agreed to come down and talk to some of our people after [redacted] appointment with the Director.
