

Deputies' Meeting

Monday, 8 September 1952

PRESENT: General Smith, Messrs. Dulles, Wisner, Wolf, Becker, Hedden, 25X1

General Smith:

9-12-52

a. Referred to cable IN 33563 and stated he had discussed the information contained therein with Mr. Ladd of the FBI and had also asked Ladd to limit dissemination of this information within the Bureau to a need-to-know basis. After some discussion as to the purpose of the meeting referred to in the above-cited cable, the DCI asked Messrs. Wisner and Becker to coordinate in the collection of further information on this subject and, in this connection, directed that in particular our Senior Representatives be queried. 25X1

Mr. Dulles:

a. Stated that in view of the heavy schedules of Deputies and Assistant Directors some difficulty was being experienced in convening Loyalty Boards. After some discussion, the Director approved D/DCI's recommendation that at his discretion a limited number of designated individuals from the Board of National Estimates and the Inspector General be used for this duty. The Director stated that (1) there was no necessity for [redacted] to continue as the Recorder of this Board; (2) he [redacted] and his principal assistants would serve in rotation as members of Loyalty Review Boards; (3) Deputy Assistant Directors would serve as members of these Boards; (4) immediate steps would be taken to clear the present backlog of loyalty cases; (5) in each loyalty case presented to him, he desired a recommendation as to whether the individual concerned was, in fact, a security risk; (6) too much time would not be consumed on Loyalty Boards convened as a result of anonymous letters; (7) the record of each Loyalty Board hearing would contain information concerning the subject's office of employment, grade, rate of pay, and length of service.

b. Stated that Col. Baird had recommended that "VIP employees" be given separate and special indoctrinations pertaining to security, organization, policies, etc. The Director noted that individuals in this category employed by him had served periods of temporary duty in several overt and/or covert offices as applicable; however, he had no objection to the above-mentioned briefing as a supplement to these temporary tours of duty.

c. Called to DD/P's attention an item in the Daily Worker regarding Gen. Donovan's trip to Europe.

d. Stated that NCFE wished to drop the word "National" from its title, particularly since there were a number of "National Committees" on the Attorney General's list. The DCI approved.

e. Noted an article in the NEW YORK ^{HEARST-TRIBUNE} ~~TRIBUNE~~ of 7 September concerning [redacted] and stated that the information contained therein might be good for [redacted] Mr. Wisner undertook to look into this matter.
